WISHING

By Ella Wheeler Wilcox
Copyright, 1910, by the New York Journal
Publishing Company

Do you wish the world were better?
Let me tell you what to do—
Set a watch upon your actions,
Keep them always straight and true,
Rid your mind of selfish motives,
Let your thoughts be clean and high;
You can make a little Eden
Of the sphere you occupy.

Do you wish the world were wiser?
Well, suppose you make a start
By accumulating wisdom
In the scrapbook of your heart.
Do not waste one page on folly.
Live to learn and learn to live;
If you want to give men knowledge
You must get it ere you give.

Do you wish the world were happier?
Then remember day by day
Just to scatter seeds of kindness
As you pass along the way.
For the pleasures of the many
May be oftentimes traced to one,
At the hand that plants an acorn
Shelters armies from the sun.

FIRE DESTROYS HOMES AT COLONIA DUBLAN.

Boy Made a Fire Next to Hay Shed—Cement Work to be Rushed on Pearson Road—Dublanman Sells Cows.

Colonia Dublin, Mex., Aug. 10.—Fire consumed the barn, stables and corral on the Chaylar place, and the powder house and stables belonging to the F. D. Haymer mercantile institution. The loss was estimated at about $2500. There was no insurance.

The fire originated in an outbuilding belonging to David Stevens. A five year old boy made a bonfire in a shed adjoining the barn, which contained hay and straw. It burned fast and soon communicated the flames to the surrounding buildings. Only two days before Haymer had removed a large quantity of powder and petroleum from the little house, that was consumed and $14,000 worth of uninsured farm implements were stored in a shed adjoining the burning buildings. A bucket brigade was formed and many of the outbuildings were saved.

Mr. Bluth has sold seven cows for $700.

Doctor Bryan has just returned from an extended trip through the Sierra Madre mountains down to the coast, trying to discover a smooth trail for the railroad, but in some places they found none.
